1143-62½-New. The lessee of water rights is entitled to renewals provided for in a lease where the state conveyed a portion of the canal subject to lessee's rights, and election to renew is not affected by the fact that the state declines to receive rentals. 13F(2d)98.

1143-62½-New. A lease is limited by construction of the law, under which it was executed, excess grant being void. 133Misc410, 233NYS49.

1143-62¼-New. A lease of surplus waters not necessary for navigation included only water which at the time of the lease was decided by commissioners not to be necessary for navigation, and did not include additional water developed by enlargement of a canal. 133Misc410, 233NYS49.

1143-62½-New. Practical construction of a lease as covering future increases of surplus water has been held not shown by law substituting a lump sum payment of rent and describing the lease of plaintiff's predecessors as perpetual. 133Misc410, 233NYS49.

1143-62½-New. Use, without objection by state, of water in excess of the water delivered, did not amount to practical construction showing that plaintiff was entitled to use under original lease of additional surplus water developed. 133 Misc410, 233NYS49.

1143-62½-New. Construction by the state of a forebay and two raceways after the amount of surplus waters delivered at the time of the lease had increased, was not recognition of a claim that the original lease included additional surplus water developed thereafter. 133Misc410, 233NYS49.

1143-62¼-New. A law prohibiting the lease of surplus waters resulting from the improvement of a canal until authorized by statute, negatived intent on the part of the state to recognize the rights of plaintiff to claim additional surplus water created by the improvement under the lease executed before the improvement. 133Misc410, 233NYS 49.

(41) Upon good cause shown and proper notice and opportunity to be heard, certificate granted to transportation company may be revoked. 114 OhSt283, 150NE28. (42) Omission of trips scheduled, by reason of diversion of busses to special trips elsewhere for such protracted period as to show neglect, is ground for revocation of certificate. 114 Oh283, 150 NE28. (43) Transportation company, granted certificate with authority to transport passengers by designated motor vehicles over described route, may not use any of such motor vehicles, in absence of grant of authority, in transporting passengers over irregular route, though trip is made under private contract. 114 Oh283, 150NE28. (44) Certificate of convenience is limited franchise. 67Utah222, 247P284. (45) Though commission does not forbid in express terms increase in number of vehicles or trips on route, such increase in service may not be made without obtaining consent of commission. 67Utah 222, 247P284. (46) Rule, requiring consent of commission to additional vehicles or trips, does not injure bus operator by depriving him of use of property in which he has made investment, since he may always be advised as to use of equipment permitted. 67Utah 222, 247P284. (47) Rule of commission, that it will not grant certificate over road, all or part of which is under construction or contract therefor, does not warrant operation of automobile on such road without certificate. 100WVa18, 129 SE707. (48) Holder of permit for transportation of passengers over established routes by motor vehicles is entitled to injunction restraining operator of motor vehicles for hire holding mere certificate of convenience from operating vehicles for hire over such route or any substantial part thereof except as incident to his ordinary business and from soliciting passengers at termini or points along route for carriage along route or substantially similar one. 100WVa32, 129SE751. (49) In determining question of public convenience and necessity commission is governed by conditions existing in territory, rather than opinion of witnesses. 113 OhSt604, 149NE 865. (50) Certificate granted motor transportation company on ground that it was in good faith operating upon certain date merely confirms right it was then exercising and nothing more. 113 OhSt604, 150NE81. (51) General statutes in some jurisdictions requiring notice to grantee of a certificate apply to citation against any certificate holder to show cause why his certificate should not be revoked, altered, or amended for noncompliance with statutes or orders of commission. 113 OhSt604, 150NE81 (five days' notice required). (52) Person, operating automobile omnibus pursuant to contract with camping association, in which he transports exclusively guests and prospective guests of association and their baggage for daily wage, is not common carrier required to obtain permit. 65Utah457, 238P237, 42ALR849. (53) Statutes requiring application upon notice to be made to commission where it is contemplated changing extending or shortening route or increasing or decreasing number of vehicles employed in motor transportation service are mandatory. 113 OhSt618, 150NE81 (provision applicable also to increase in seating capacity of busses). (54) Such required notice applies to revocation, alteration, or amendment of the authority for the issuance of the certificate as well as to that of certificate itself. 113 OhSt604, 150NE81. (55) Certificate of convenience does not give holder right to exclusive use of highway or to exclude therefrom persons not patronizing him. 65Utah457, 238P237, 42ALR849. (56) Revocation of certificate may be had upon noncompliance with mandatory statutes. 113 OhSt604, 150NE81. (57) Statutes, permitting procedure by affidavit to obtain certificate, have been superseded in some jurisdictions by amendments requiring procedure by application and notice, which expressly impose a limitation of date upon proceeding by affidavit after which the new procedure must be followed. 113 OhSt618, 150NE81. (58) Commission cannot of its own motion authorize increased service without notice and hearing as required by statute. 113 Oh 604, 150NE237. (59) Statutes govern time for hearing of application for certificate in some jurisdictions upon giving by notice of publication of filing of the application three weeks immediately prior to day set for hearing, and hearing cannot be had until three full weeks have elapsed from first publication of notice. 113 OhSt618, 150NE81. (60) But refusal on ground of noncompliance with statute to revoke certificate granted on affidavit motor transportation company was in good faith operating on certain date is within discretion of court. 113 OhSt618, 150NE81. (61) Technical failure to comply with provision of statute as to time of notice by publication is not ground for complaint where parties were present before commission without applying for continuance or complaining of being unready for hearing or being deprived of time to secure evidence or opportunity to be heard. 113 OhSt618, 150NE81 (order of commission not unreasonable on such ground). (62) Statute requires establishment, on proper investigation, that operation is necessary or convenient for public and that proposed service is not then being adequately performed by others. 104WVa183, 139 SE744. 735-43 [a] Liability of sheriff for keeper's fees.-(1) Possession of mortgagor as keeper is not possession of mortgagor as such as affects claim against sheriff for labor and materials furnished in caring for cattle. 45 Ida 499, 263P481.

735-43½-New. As against the mortgagors, it is competent for the sheriff, after levy and seizure of cattle, to appoint one of the mortgagors as keeper pending sale. 45 Ida499, 263P481.

736-68 [a] Sufficiency of evidence.-Evidence that property was covered by mortgage and was in mortgagor's possession when mortgage was executed sustains plaintiff's burden. 41GaA211, 152SE264.

736-69 41GaA211, 152SE264 (evidence held insufficient).

737-70½-New. Evidence has been held insufficient to establish the identity of property levied on with the mortgaged property. 36GaA223, 136SE102.

737-71½-New. [§ 573a] 7½. Sale. Where the sheriff appointed the mortgagor as keeper of mortgaged cattle pending sale, the mortgagor's claim for keeper's fees and feed for the cattle constitutes a debt of the mortgagee deductible by the sheriff from the proceeds of sale. 45 Ida499, 263P481.

737-71½-New. Where the mortgagor assigns such claim to the purchaser at the sale, the sheriff is under no duty to collect the same as a credit due to the mortgagor. 45 Ida499, 263P481.

737-71¼-New. In such case the mortgagee cannot complain because the sheriff accepts such claim from the purchaser as part payment. 45 Ida499, 263 P481.

855-12½-New. Intention to mislead will not be imputed to county judge in telling elected county clerk that he would approve bond after time set by statute. 219Ky185, 292SW785.
857-38½-New. Office of county court clerk cannot be declared vacant for failure to give bond within the time prescribed by statute where judge told the clerk elect that he would approve bond on following day. 219Ky185, 292SW 785.
858-42½-New. A vacancy occurs on the creation of a new court of record with clerk thereof in which case regular term of clerk does not begin until first general election thereafter. 94Fla986, 114 S889.
858-45 94Fla986, 114S889.
860-73½-New. After a finding by jury of a sufficient cause for removal, the judge of a superior court still has discretion to determine whether the finding shall be enforced or suspended. 160Ga 520, 127SE759.
860-88½-New. A clerk of a superior court cannot be removed by the judge of a superior court under a statute for misconduct as ex officio clerk of a city court. 34GaA281, 129SE299.
860-88⅓-New. The failure of a clerk of a superior court to give a bond required as ex officio clerk of a city court will not authorize removal as clerk of a superior court. 160Ga520, 128SE759.
860-88¼-New. Incapacity or misconduct as ex officio clerk of a city court will not authorize the removal as a clerk of a superior court. 160Ga520, 128 SE759.
860-88⅕-New. Misconduct covering acts as clerk of a superior court and ex officio clerk of a city court is sufficient ground for removal as clerk of a superior court. 34GaA281, 129SE299.
860-88⅙-New. Appointment of wife as deputy is ground of forfeiture under constitutional provision for forfeiture for appointment of relative within fourth degree. Mo 28SW(2d)363.
861-91 [c] Notice of hearing and hearing necessary.-NJ 149A765.
861-97 [b] Verdict finding clerk of superior court guilty of one charge will authorize removal, though other counts are not sustained by evidence. 160Ga 520, 128SE759.
861-3½-New. Allegations of a petition that acts of misconduct are illustrated by an auditor's report on file in the office of a clerk of court are sufficient as to particularity and to put defendant on notice. 34GaA28; 129SE299.
861-5½-New. Where records relative to cases are in evidence, it is not error to admit dockets on the ground that defendant is charged with irregularity in keeping them. 34GaA281, 129SE299.
861-5⅓-New. In a suit to remove a clerk of a superior court, it is error to admit evidence as to the conduct of defendant as an ex officio clerk of a city court. 34GaA281, 129SE299.
861-8½-New. Where a petition in a suit to remove a clerk of a superior court contains counts alleging misconduct in that office and as an ex officio clerk of a city court, a conviction under each and all counts is illegal except as it may appear from the evidence that defendant was necessarily found guilty of misconduct as clerk of a superior court. 34GaA281, 129SE299.
861-8⅓-New. Where a petition in a suit to remove a clerk of superior court for alleged misconduct in that office and as an ex officio clerk of city court convictions as to counts charging misconduct as clerk of city court sustained by evidence are authorized. 34GaA281, 129 SE299.
861-9½-New. In Georgia a motion to remove a clerk of a superior court is quasi criminal and the statute must be given strict construction in favor of respondent. 160Ga570, 128SE759.
861-9⅓-New. In a proceeding to remove a clerk of a superior court, his conduct relative to his duties as an ex officio clerk of a city court is irrelevant and immaterial. 160Ga520, 128SE759.
861-9¼-New. After finding by jury, the judge of a superior court has no discretion in determining what is a sufficient cause for removal, except to adjudge the finding contrary to law or evidence on motion for new trial. 160 Ga520, 128SE759.
861-9⅕-New. Allegations of a petition for removal of a clerk of a superior court charging misconduct both in that office and as an ex officio clerk of city court are not subject to general demurrer on the ground that conduct as a city clerk is not ground for removal, a special demurrer or motion to strike being necessary. 160Ga520, 128SE759.
861-13½-New. In a suit to remove clerk of a superior court, refusal to allow defendant to make a statement is harmless where he voluntarily gives testimony under oath. 34GaA281, 129SE 299.
861-13⅓-New. Judgment predicated on conviction upon five counts in a petition for removal of a clerk of a superior court, unauthorized as to counts charging misconduct as an ex officio clerk of a city court, will be set aside and the case remanded. 34GaA281; 129SE299.

1080–6½–New. An owner of a vessel being towed is not guilty of breach of duty by failing to have engines capable of such quick action as to be able to avert collision with a third vessel resulting from the tug's negligence. 31 F(2d)885.
1080–19½–New. It is not negligent for the master of a tug engaged in moving a ship to make fast to the ship's port quarter, although from that position he cannot see an approaching vessel. 31 F(2d)963.
1081–28 34F(2d)620.
1082–41½–New. Where a tug left her tow of ocean-going barges equipped for rough weather in a safe anchorage place, and notwithstanding warning of a coming gale, one of the barges neglected to use her largest anchor until after the barge had begun to drift, when it was too late, the tug cannot be held liable for a resulting collision of such barge with another because it did not come back and care for the barges during the storm. 29F(2d)5.

1147-23 [a] Vessel maneuvering to enter anchorage is not priveleged. 42F(2d)745.
1147-24½-New. A steamship proceeding up river at the time of a collision with a steamship proceeding down river has been held partially at fault in not reducing speed or reversing engines after seeing that the latter ship lay course across her bow in disregard of starboard passing signals until only a minute before collision. 30F(2d)923.
1147-25 28F(2d)939 (down boat may elect which side to take).
1147-30½-New. Where neither of two vessels approaching head on or nearly so has given signals provided for by Great Lakes Rules, rule 25, each must pass to the port side of the other. Can [1929] 3DomLR536.
1147-30½-New. Where one of such vessels fails to keep to port side of the other and neither of them keeps efficient outlook and gives signals required by the rules which would have avoided the collision if given, both are equally in fault. Can [1929] 3DomLR536.
1148-35 6F(2d)132.
1148-45 40F(2d)310.

1149–57½–New. Mississippi tug captain must keep out of way of tug on his starboard. 17F(2d)783.
1149–57⅓–New. Tug's failure to observe starboard hand rule, after agreeing to change course, held proximate cause of collision. 17F(2d)783.
1149–58 30F(2d)781.
1149–62½–New. A steamship is not at fault in collision with a descending vessel because of failure to refrain from attempting to enter a narrow channel until the approaching ship has emerged therefrom, where there is ample room for passage in case of proper navigation. 30F(2d)781.
1149–62⅓–New. A motorship, accorded ample room for safe passing in the channel of a river in case she had been properly navigated, is solely at fault in collision with an approaching steamship. 30F(2d)781.
1150–68 21F(2d)314; 37F(2d)45; 43F(2d)585; 43F(2d)965. [a] 18F(2d)743.

1150–80½–New. or to tugs passing each other in stream, 42F(2d)549.
1151–96½–New. A tug with a tow attempting to pass through Hell Gate on flood tide in unusually cold and icy weather is at fault for collision of the tow with a drill in midstream. 26F(2d)240.
1151–4 16F(2d)483; 31F(2d)963.
1152–22½–New. Vessels proceeding to mooring buoys back of breakwater held not to be proceeding on crossing courses. 16F(2d)483.
1152–23 [a] Rule prohibiting vessels running within five hundred feet from and parallel to, pierhead line applies to vessels running only short distances. 25F(2d)299.
1152–24 29F(2d)849.
1153–31 37F(2d)101 (duty of entering tug colliding with tug moving out).
1153–38½–New. A vessel about to go into a slip is not at fault where, on proper signals, the exhaust valve failed to operate and the vessel failed to stop. 26F(2d)480.
1154–49 20F(2d)568.
1154–54 37F(2d)45 (tug backing out floats in ignorance or disregard of presence of yacht and lighter).
1154–60 [a] Vessel backed seven hundred feet from pier ends in North River preparatory to turning is not per se improper. 27F(2d)788.
1154–60½–New. What is reasonable and careful navigation in backing from a ship depends on lawful customs of vessels and special customs of wind and tide and passing traffic. 22F(2d)195.
1155–84 19F(2d)294.
1156–92 22F(2d)275 (ferryboats colliding).
1156–95½–New. A steamer wedged against a fuel scow while being taken through a canal has been held without fault in extricating herself from the position which lack of care on the part of the master had placed her. 31F(2d)759 [aff 31F(2d)761].
1156–95⅓–New. A tug turning in a canal as another tug and tow were coming up is solely at fault as regards damages to a moored motor boat struck by the second tug. 27F(2d)624.
1156–98 30F(2d)675.
1156–1 22F(2d)290.
1156–2½–New. A schooner propelled in a canal at night by a motor boat astern, which could not check speed or move astern quickly, is at fault for collision. 22F(2d)182.
1156–2⅓–New. A motor cruiser, operating in a canal at night, not on her own side of the fairway and failing to keep a proper lookout, is chargeable with contributory fault. 22F(2d)182.
1156–2¼–New. Failure to reduce speed may constitute fault. 30F(2d)675.
1157–7 31F(2d)759 [aff 31F(2d)761].
1157–17 [c] (51) Ship moving at rate of speed of at least seven miles per hour in crowded harbor is at fault in collision with tow proceeding on steady and obvious course. 27F(2d)665. (52) Thirteen to fifteen knots on clear night down stream in New York Harbor. 37F(2d)734. [d] (8) Five or six miles per hour with tow in East River. 42F(2d)549.
1158–18 [a] 22F(2d)275.
1158–20 42F(2d)971.
1158–20½–New. A power barge, approaching a steamer, failing to slacken speed or stop and back when she heard no passing signal at the proper time, is at fault in a resulting collision. 27F(2d)208.
1158–20⅓–New. Collision in a narrow channel is due to the fault of a ship failing to maintain a proper steerageway by reason of reducing speed. 27F(2d)906.
1159–36 [c] Where speed of lighter was well within limit several minutes before collision, speed prior thereto is of no importance. 37F(2d)45.
1160–6 39F(2d)586.
1160–9 [h] Maneuvering of vessel, in backing out of slip and straightening on course, presents case of "special circumstances." 22F(2d)195. [i] Vessel maneuvering to leave slip.–24F(2d)653. [j] Vessel not consenting to change of existing situation may not be bound by special circumstance rule. 42F(2d)745.
1162–11 18F(2d)295. [b] (7) Master of launch knowing steamer was about to go into its slip held bound to conduct navigation with reference thereto. 6F(2d)860.

1219-13¼-New. Commissioner's findings as to damage for total loss, when based on competent evidence, must be confirmed. 16F(2d)643.
1219-13¾-New. That detention damages were the proximate result of collision has been held not to have been proved. 27F(2d)684.
1219-13⅛-New. To recover profits lost, circumstances must be shown with sufficient particularity to prove libelant's accustomed use of the barge was such that it could have been spared from its fleet and would probably have found employment. 27F(2d)921.
1219-13⅛-New. Evidence held not to establish unseaworthiness. 41F(2d)270.

131-74¼-New. Award not supported by substantial evidence is illegal. 25 F(2d)750.

131-74⅕-New. An order of the commission directing a railroad to put in effect certain intra-state freight rates to remove discrimination against interstate commerce, is confined to rates in territory respecting which evidence and findings relate and does not fix intrastate rates for the whole state, where the order expressly confines interstate rates to such territory and deals with intra-state rates only by reference to the order fixing interstate rates. 30 F(2d)116.

131-74⅙-New. In construing an order of the commission directed to elimination of unjust discrimination of intrastate rates against interstate commerce, construction which will uphold its validity, rather than one making it invalid, should be adopted. 30F(2d)116.

131-74⅐-New. An order clarifying a previous order prescribing an intrastate freight rate to remove unjust discrimination against interstate commerce, although made without further hearing of evidence, is effective from its date, at least. 31F(2d)580.

131-74⅛-New. The commission's order authorizing a railroad to issue securities for acquiring an old railroad on condition that the new company should impound money received from stockholders in an amount equal to four dollars per share does not affect a trust fund, under a reorganization agreement, set aside for reorganization expenses. 33 F(2d)582(2dcase).
